Pre-registration Advising & How to Build a Schedule for Registration Week How to Pre-registration advising is a key time to prepare for registration Prepare for week. It occurs one to two weeks before registration and is Registration dedicated to connecting with your primary advisor to discuss Week your academic progress and degree plan. You are required to Confirm you do not meet with your primary advisor before you register for have any registration holds that can affect classes. your registration. Review your It is important to eview what courses Academic How? _Whyyou are eligible to Progress take/ schedule. You should aim to create a 15-16hrs Check your balanced schedule. LORA account How? Student under "Student Health Records" Review Review Connect Connect with your Progress your progress with your primary the respective on your Major on Uachieve Student · Classes for Core advisor. office DPCL Records Foundational Requirements overseeing · Classes for your Core the hold. Knowledge & Values -How? Requirements How? · Classes for your Major · Classes for Exploring any Contact info Make note of and all subjects (General Sign into your found on the classes Electives) Single-Sign-on LORA under Student vou've taken "Student Account Financial so far. Records" Services Select "Uachieve" All LOYNO CORE Classes can be found

Select "Run

Declared

Program"

Review Each

section

Select "View

Audit"

on LORA's "Course Section Search" using the "Loyola

Core" dropdown

search feature.